WHAT DID CORONA TAKE (CONT)

Kaylee Wobig- Corona took away the most seniory part of senior year. After working hard the rest of the year, I was looking forward to being able to chill out a little bit fourth quarter. In fourth quarter, I would've had my last swing into spring, prom, film fest, senior prank, and other senior shenanigans. Corona took away all the typically “seniory” things I was looking forward to doing but now can’t.

Paige Ziccarelli- A graduation day that I’ve been thinking about for a long time.

Letters from the Editors

When I joined newspaper sophomore year, I had no idea how profoundly the class would affect my time in high school. I was nervous about finding my niche in the group, but Negele welcomed me to the “family” with open arms. For the past three years I have loved writing for the newspaper. I was given the opportunity to excel at something and have fun while doing it. I soon became known for writing about politics whenever I had the chance. (Negele actually put a limit on how many politics-related articles I could write each issue). Newspaper was always full of fun experiences (I always loved gathering together for editing circle). For me, newspaper was where I could let my guard down and relax, but still do something that challenged me. Writing articles wasn’t always easy (the infamous staff ed comes to mind), but even when I was arguing with Negele about the best way to get my point across, I was having fun.

To the 2019-2020 staff members, I know I was a mean editor, but it was because I desperately wanted to create quality content every time. It paid off because we put out some of the highest quality, most excellent papers I have seen in my three years in newspaper. We won an unprecedented ten awards at the Best Story Contest and our website continued to have entertaining, informative articles published every day. Helping lead this group of writers was an honor that will remain one of my favorite parts of high school. Thank you.

-Molly Harms

Newspaper was completely different from what I expected. Well I don't really know what I expected, but I was still surprised. The class was fun but it was also serious. We worked hard to provide the school with quality content and I think we managed to do so. My favorite parts of newspaper were when we did Secret Santa and when we had the newspaper party. I enjoyed my time in newspaper and I'll always remember it. -Emily Hartman

I joined newspaper my junior year and it was very intimidating. I walked in late on the very first day of class, yay, and then I saw a room filled with seniors who I knew about, but had never really talked to. Despite this, it was so much fun. It felt like we were one big family who could say and do anything and all share a laugh. We bonded over school and articles, while debating some of the funniest or most serious issues. It was not what I was expecting, but I would not trade my experience in this class for anything else.

My senior year, I convinced a few of my friends to join, which made it even better, which I did not think was possible. We would talk about anything and everything and everyone would still laugh and join in the conversation. Newspaper was the best class I have ever taken at SHS because of how close we all were. Every day I would come to newspaper excited about what we would talk about and, honestly, just excited to see these people every day. This class has brought some of my favorite memories at SHS like when Molly threw a pen at Negele or when she broke Negele’s stress ball (it was a lot funnier than it sounds). I will miss this class, Mr. Gully, Mr. Kramer, Ms. Negele and our staffers the most. Thank you for the valuable lessons and all the memories!

FROM THE 2020 STAFF OF THE SENATOR,

WE LOVE THE CLASS OF 2020

Senior recognition from the Class of 2021

Each year, the sophomore and junior members of The Senator creatively honor the senior staff members. This year, each of our four juniors celebrated two of our eight seniors.

Brooke Thompson

FAVORITE PHOTO:

Favorite Article: Fish and Me

Favorite Memory: Showing up late every day

Favorite Quote: “When are the articles due?”

When she came to class, Dunkin iced coffee in hand, Brooke was a solid part of the newspaper family! While she asked lots of deep questions (Who is Buddha?) and used big words nobody ever knew, her articles were always entertaining, informative and well-written.

Thumbs up, Brookie!

Sidney Harney

Favorite Article: Any sports article

Favorite Quote: “Shut up Molly”

Favorite Memory: Making rude, but funny, comments

Sidney was always up for any challenge thrown her way! She is a great leader and a good sport (who else could deal so well with Molly without going crazy?!?). While sports were her jam, Sidney could whip out an article on any topic when it needed to get done. While life is not always easy or fun, Sidney handles everything with strength and kindness. Good luck on your next adventure, Sid! I-L-L-I-N-I :)

Emily Hartman

Emily Hartman has been on the newspaper staff for her junior and senior year. This year she became one of the editors of The Senator newspaper. While most of the time Emily is quiet, she is one of the hardest workers on the staff. She published great works, especially about her dog Sasha. Emily has been an honor to work with and the staff can not wait to see what's in store for her!

Sam Brower

Sam Brower joined the newspaper staff his senior year. So while it was his first and last year on the staff, he still made an impact. Although Sam did not talk much, his writing spoke volumes. Sam shared his passion for movies in various articles throughout the year. He also started an interesting series titled “Hacked.” Sam has been fun to work along with and we are excited to see what comes next!

PRIYA PATEL

Priya Patel is another fantastic staff member. Whether she's telling another joke or keeping everyone up on the latest gossip, you will NEVER be bored around Priya. She really adds a sense of "family" to the whole staff because she is always someone you can count on to listen to your problems and give you some of the best advice. SLU is getting a good one next year, we will love and miss you! To future Priya- Have you brought home a woman yet? Let us know!!

ANNA LAMSARGIS

Anna Lamsargis is one of the funniest people on the staff. She's always laughing, is such a good sport and never fails to bring joy to the rest of the group. We're going to miss you and your "funny jokes" so much next year! Love you and wish you the best at the University of Illinois!

A Note From Ms. Negele

Thanks for all your amazing work and dedication to The Senator newspaper! Everybody worked hard this year and we produced many great issues of which we are very proud. While there is always room for improvement, our senior leaders set a solid foundation for the remaining staff to build on next year. I have enjoyed all our articles this year, and I will miss the passion and excitement everyone had for each issue. Our online presence really took off, and I'm excited that you all wrangled in new readers of our paper. From brainstorming, to writing, to editing circles, to laying out... and all the gossiping, laughing, yelling in between, this was a PHENOMENAL year with an excellent newspaper staff. And to our seniors-- Sam Brower, Anna Lamsargis, Paige Oschwald, Priya PP Patel, Brooke Thompson, Emily Hartman (co-editor), Sidney Harney (co-editor) and Molly Harms (co-editor)-- THANK YOU FOR EVERYTHING! We will miss you TONS! And don't worry- Roy Gully the Fish will still be around if you ever want to visit.
